Description

To provide leaders, managers and supporters with information about how we deliver Scouting to young people, and how we ensure it meets their needs.

This means:

- ❖ Understanding the key elements of the programme for each section
- ❖ Being able to describe the Badges and Award schemes
- ❖ Knowing the importance and how to review the programme
- ❖ Understanding the Young Leaders' Scheme
- ❖ Understanding how to keep Scouting Youth Shaped

Partial Re-validation of this module is required when moving to a Manager or Supporter appointment; in which case learners must complete one of the manager specific validation criteria in light of their new role.

Test yourself questions (there are many more that need validating)

1. What are the key elements that make up the programme?

2. Do you know the six areas which are key to the development of young people?

3. Can you identify the three themes of the programme?

4. Do you know the underlying themes of the programme?

5. Do you know what a quality programme looks like (how would you describe it)?

6. Do you know about the badges and awards for your section?

5. Do you know what a quality checker is and what its purpose is?

6. Do you understand what Youth Shaped Scouting looks like and what value it brings?
