Description

To provide an international focus appropriate to their section and appreciate the global nature of Scouting

This means:

- ❖ Describing the nature of world Scouting
- ❖ Understanding what International events are, and how they happen
- ❖ Explaining the International aspects of the balanced programme
- ❖ Understanding the benefits of international activities to young people

Test yourself questions

1. Can you identify some of the things worldwide Scouting shares?

2. Can you identify the world membership badge and describe what it symbolises?

3. Can you identify opportunities for young people in your section to take part in international activities and events?

4. Can I explain why international activities are part of the balanced programme?

5. Can you identify methods for including international activities in the section programme?

6. Who can provide support with incorporating international activities into the section programme?

7. Can you outline the benefits of international activities to young people in my section?

How is this module validated?

Task 1

To validate this module, you will need to review the programme for the section you support and make adjustments to ensure it incorporates international activities.

Task 2 & 3

You will also need to complete two of the following:

1. Plan and run an international themed event or activity for young people exploring either:
 - the global nature of Scouting
 - the role of the world membership badge
 - international events in Scouting
2. Be involved in the planning and running of an international trip, for example a camp abroad, including producing an event plan
3. Support young people taking part in an international experience
4. Establish or actively maintain a link, and exchange information, with a Scout Group outside of the UK
5. Any other ideas, subject to agreement with your Training Adviser.
